OUR PROCESS

Republic Restoratives' first offering, Civic is a progressive American craft vodka of the highest standard. It is distilled exclusively from North American corn.

After distillation it is patiently charcoal polished 2,300 times through a meter of activated charcoal, a proprietary filtration process that leaves the spirit smooth and lean.

NOSING AND TASTING NOTES

Up front there are light notes of lemon peel on Civic's crisp nose.

You'll notice a sweetness at the tip of the tongue, creamy mouthfeel in the middle pallet, and a smooth, dry finish. Unlike other corn-based gluten free vodkas, there is no lingering burn.

It's beautiful in cocktails and stands up great in a 2:1 martini.
